Independent Auditors' Report

To the Stockholders of
Prim Securities, Incorporated

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial position of Prim Securities, Incorporated (a wholly-owned subsidiary of Prim Capital Corporation) as of December 31, 2001, and the related statement of income, stockholders' equity and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statements presentation.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Prim Securities, Incorporated as of December 31, 2001, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in the supplemental information contained on pages 11 and 12 is prepared for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

BUSINESS ACTIVITY

Prim Securities, Incorporated (the "Company") is a registered broker/dealer in securities. The Company is primarily involved in the sale of interests in public limited partnerships, investment company shares, variable annuities and general securities. The Company does not hold funds or securities for, or owe money or securities to, customers and does not otherwise carry customer accounts. Accordingly, the Company is exempt from Securities and Exchange Commission Rule 15c3-3.

SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Recognition of Income - Income and expenses are reported on the accrual basis of accounting. Income is reported when investor subscriptions or funds are transmitted to issuers or agents. Commission income is contingent upon acceptance by the issuer/agent. In the case of limited partnerships, commissions generally are not paid until the first disbursement has been made from the applicable escrow account. There is a contingent risk that the terms of the offering will not be met and, therefore, commissions will not be paid. Commission expenses are recorded concurrently with commission income. The Registered Representative Contract, signed by each representative, provides that commissions "will be paid as commissions are received by Prim Securities, Incorporated". Any orders or trades that are canceled result in a reversal of the commission income and expense on the records of the Company.

Use of Estimates - The presentation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income Taxes - Income taxes are provided for the tax effects of transactions reported in the financial statements and consist of taxes currently due plus deferred taxes. Deferred taxes are recognized for differences between the basis of assets and liabilities for financial statement and income tax purposes. The deferred tax assets and liabilities represent the future tax return consequences of those differences, which will either be taxable or deductible when the assets and liabilities are recovered or settled. Deferred taxes also are recognized for operating losses and tax credits that are available to offset future taxable income. The Company files a consolidated tax return with its parent. Its share of federal income tax benefits and expense is calculated on a separate company basis.

Cash and Cash Equivalents - Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash in a checking account, certificate of deposit and money markets.

INCOME TAXES

There was an income tax benefit of $ 8,100 from use of an operating loss carryforward by the Company for the year ended December 31, 2001. There was no income tax expense for the Company for the year ended December 31, 2000.

INCOME TAXES (CONTINUED)

Following is a reconciliation of the expected income tax expense/benefit to the amount based on the U.S. statutory rate of 15% for the year ended December 31, 2001:

	2001
Income tax benefit based on U.S. statutory rate	$ 8,100
Current period change in the valuation allowance	(8,100)
Provision for income taxes	$ --

The significant components of the Company's deferred tax assets and liabilities are as follows:

	2001
Deferred tax assets:
Net operating loss carryforward	$ 34,700
Valuation allowances	(34,700)
Net deferred tax assets	$ --

The Company's valuation allowance decreased by $ 8,100 for the year ended December 31, 2001, which represents the effect of net operating income. The Company has recorded a valuation allowance to record its deferred tax assets at estimated net realizable value due to the uncertainty of realization of these assets through future taxable income.

The Company has available at December 31, 2001, unused operating loss carryforward of $ 231,100 that may be applied against future taxable income and expires in 2015.

LITIGATION

The Company is a defendant in legal proceedings related to an investment to a client of an individual broker of the Company. Counsel for the Company has expressed that the Company has an indemnification agreement from the individual broker who made the sale of the investment. The Company believes the proceedings are without merit and is vigorously defending its position. The maximum exposure to the Company for this matter is the Company's insurance deductible of $ 25,000.

The Company is a respondent in a NASD arbitration proceeding related to the sale of interest in an offshore trust by a former registered representative of the Company. Counsel for the Company has expressed that the Company has agreed to a settlement which would require a $ 5,000 payment by the Company for a complete release. This amount is recorded as an other liability at December 31, 2001.

CORRESPONDENT AGREEMENT

The Company has entered into a clearing arrangement for trades in listed securities through Bear, Stearns Securities Corp. of Brooklyn, New York. The Company as "Correspondent" agreed to indemnify Bear Stearns in connection with customer accounts of the Correspondent. The Company maintains a deposit of $ 100,000 with Bear Stearns in an interest-bearing account. The deposit is refundable upon termination of the agreement.

NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to the Uniform Net Capital Rule of Securities and Exchange Commission. Under the Rule, the Company's aggregate indebtedness to all other persons cannot exceed 1,500 percent of net capital. The Rule also requires that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if aggregate indebtedness exceeds 1,000 percent of net capital. At December 31, 2001, the Company had net capital of $ 182,037 that was $ 175,443 in excess of the minimum required. The percentage of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 54.31%.

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Prim Securities, Incorporated is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Prim Capital Corporation. The Company shares facilities, office support and employees with other affiliated companies and is billed its share of these costs. Accordingly, "Management fees" includes allocations of costs for these items and management fees in the amount of $ 297,900 in the aggregate.

CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK

The Company places most of its operating cash with one financial institution. This practice does not serve to limit the Company's exposure to the credit risk associated with cash balances exceeding the maximum insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. As of December 31, 2001, $ 50,543 of cash was exposed to this risk.

PRIM SECURITIES, INCORPORATED
STATEMENT PURSUANT TO RULE 17A-5(D)(4)

A reconciliation of the computation of net capital under Rule 15c3-1 as included in the Company's unaudited Form X-17a-5 as of December 31, 2001 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and the amount included in the accompanying Computation of Net Capital follows:

	December 31, 2001
Net capital, as reported in Company's Form X-17a-5, Part IIA	$ 191,443
Net audit adjustments	(9,406)
Net capital, as reported in Schedule I	$ 182,037

The Company is not required to present the schedules "Computation for Determination of Reserve Requirements Pursuant to Rule 15c3-3" and "Information for Possession or Control Requirements Pursuant to Rule 15c3-3" as it meets the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3, under Section (k)(2)(ii) of the Rule.

Independent Auditors' Supplementary Report on Internal Control

To the Stockholders
Prim Securities, Incorporated

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of Prim Securities, Incorporated for the year ended December 31, 2001, we considered its internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on internal control.

As, as required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company, including tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications and comparisons;
2. Recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13; and
3. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that error or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2001, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, the Securities and Exchange Commission, the National Association of Securities Dealers and other regulatory agencies that rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
